The University of Kansas

The University of Kansas, founded in 1866, has long been known for its commitment to academic excellence. With a faculty of 2,200 and a student body of 29,000, KU serves as a major resource for teaching, scholarship, and service for the state, the region, and the nation. KU awards doctorates in 63 fields and master’s degrees in nearly 100. The libraries, with more than 3.8 million printed volumes, many maps, photographs, documents, microforms, and several historic collections, are among the largest in the Midwest.

The university’s main campus occupies 1,000 acres in Lawrence, a community of about 82,000 among the forested hills of eastern Kansas. Lawrence is 40 miles west of Kansas City and 30 miles east of Topeka, the state capital. The Lawrence campus is on Mount Oread, one of several bluffs in the Kansas and Wakarusa river valleys.

The University of Kansas belongs to the Association of American Universities, a select group of 62 leading higher education institutions in the United States and Canada. Member institutions are chosen on the basis of their national significance in graduate studies and research.
The School of Social Welfare and Its Programs

The University of Kansas School of Social Welfare is an excellent place to pursue your interests in professional social work education. It is the oldest school of social welfare in the state and the only one to offer degree preparation from undergraduate through doctoral degrees in social work.

Social work education began at KU in 1937. The Master of Social Work program, established in Lawrence and at the KU Medical Center in Kansas City in 1946, has been continuously accredited since 1948. The Bachelor of Social Work degree has been awarded since 1971. In 1974, the B.S.W. program became one of the first in the nation to receive accredited status. The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), the accrediting body for social work education, most recently reaccredited the B.S.W. and M.S.W. programs in 2002. The doctoral program admitted its first students in 1981.

KU’s Master of Social Work program was tied for eighth among U.S. national public universities, according to U.S. News & World Report’s “America’s Best Graduate Schools” rankings for 2007. The School of Social Welfare is recognized internationally as an innovator in social work theory development.

The school is housed on KU’s Lawrence campus in Twente Hall, named for nationally renowned social work educator Esther Twente, who chaired the social work department from 1946 to 1957. The school also offers the complete M.S.W. program at the KU Edwards Campus in Overland Park, a suburb of Kansas City, and an on-site 2+2 B.S.W. degree-completion program at Kansas City Kansas Community College.

Mission and Themes

The school’s mission is to educate students, conduct scholarly inquiry, and perform community service in order to promote an approach to social work practice that advances the empowerment and well-being of individuals and communities. For complete descriptions of the B.S.W. and M.S.W. program goals and objectives, visit the school’s Web site at www.socwel.ku.edu/mission.

This mission is guided by four themes:

- Strengths Perspective. The recognition of the inherent strengths of individuals, families, neighborhoods, and organizations to discover and develop resources and assets in their struggle for a better quality of life.

- Diversity. Understanding, valuing, and engaging the broad range of differences and commonalities based on culture, ethnicity, race, geography, gender, social class, sexual orientation, and physical and mental abilities, particularly when those differences are the cause of discrimination.

- Social Justice. A commitment to greater equality based on a sophisticated understanding of economic, political, and social structures as they affect people’s lives.

- Critical Perspective. The capacity to engage in a deliberate and ongoing examination of the assumptions underlying social work theories, methods, and approaches in understanding and responding to human need.

The Programs

At the University of Kansas, students have the opportunity to prepare for professional careers in social work at the bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral levels. The curriculum is carefully laid out to bring students from the introductory level through advanced study in clinical social work practice or social work administrative and advocacy practice. Under the umbrella of a practice orientation, the programs are structured to support the essential themes of the school, which focus on people’s strengths, celebrate human diversity, promote social and economic justice, and provide a critical perspective.

Classroom work is one half of professional preparation; field placements are the other half. Placements in social service agencies offer students the opportunity to apply skills learned in the classroom. B.S.W. and M.S.W. students spend time in practicum settings throughout the region. Our students provide more than 220,000 hours of service to underserved populations through practicum experiences.

Professional and Community Education

To help our graduates and other professionals maintain proficiency in practice skills and to expand their capacities, the school offers a wide range of courses and workshops through the Professional and Community Education Program. These offerings are designed specifically for the practicing professional. Courses are developed in conjunction with the local human services community. They range from management skills to sophisticated clinical strategies. Evening and weekend classes are offered with a variety of credit and noncredit options. For information on the program and its offerings, please call Kay Lynne Myers, program director, KU Edwards Campus.
The School of Social Welfare currently has more than 550 students, approximately 150 in the B.S.W. program, 350 in the master’s program, and 40 in the Ph.D. program. More than 350 students are enrolled in field practicum settings that reflect the wide range of practice of professional social work. Many students enter social work as a second career after an extended period away from school.

The Profession

Through the long history of the profession, social workers have understood the desperation of the homeless, the despair of the poor, the ostracism suffered by the mentally ill, the pain of those who are abused and neglected, and the humiliation endured by victims of discrimination. By carrying out this special commitment to helping vulnerable groups and individuals, social workers believe that society as a whole is strengthened. At the same time, social workers celebrate differences among people and believe that respecting those differences — whether of race, culture, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or age — enriches the quality of life for all.

Purpose and Objectives of Social Work

Social work is a vital, evolving profession that changes with the world in which we live. The purpose of social work is to promote or restore a mutually beneficial interaction between individuals and society in order to improve the quality of life for everyone. Social workers hold the following beliefs:

- The environment (social, physical, organizational) should provide the opportunity and resources for the maximum realization of the potential and aspirations of all individuals, and should provide for their common human needs and for the alleviation of distress and suffering.
- Individuals should contribute as effectively as they can to their own well-being and to the social welfare of others in their immediate environment, as well as to the collective society.
- Transactions between individuals and others in their environment should enhance the dignity, individuality, and self-determination of everyone. People should be treated humanely and fairly.

Social workers focus on person-and-environment interaction. To carry out their purpose, they work with people to achieve the following objectives:

- Help people increase their competence and problem-solving abilities.
- Help people obtain resources.
- Make organizations responsive to people.
- Facilitate interaction between individuals and others in their environment.
- Influence interactions between organizations and institutions.
- Influence social and environmental policy.

Social workers are educated to provide services to individuals, families, groups, and communities; to develop, administer, and evaluate programs and organizations; and to participate in policy formulation and planning at the local, state, and national levels.

NASW Code of Ethics

As a guide to professional conduct, the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) represents the fundamental values of the profession. The National Association of Social Workers is the largest organization of professional social workers in the world, with a membership of 166,000.

The Code of Ethics identifies six values that inform the following principles:

- Social workers’ primary goal is to help people in need and to address social problems.
- Social workers challenge social injustice.
- Social workers respect the inherent dignity and worth of the person.
- Social workers recognize the central importance of human relations.
- Social workers behave in a trustworthy manner.
- Social workers practice within their areas of competence and develop and enhance their professional expertise.

To view the entire Code of Ethics or for a copy, contact www.socialworkers.org.

Nondiscrimination, Equal Opportunity, and Affirmative Action Policy

The University of Kansas prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, ancestry, and disability and veteran status, in accordance with state and federal law. The university also prohibits discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, marital status, and parental status as a matter of policy. Discrimination is prohibited in employment and all education programs and activities of the university and its affiliates.

Social work education in Kansas began at KU in 1937.

The school places a high value on diversity and cultural variation in the student body.

Major themes of KU’s School of Social Welfare include the Strengths Perspective, diversity, a critical perspective, and a commitment to social justice.
ates. Sexual, racial, and ethnic harassment are forms of discrimination that are also expressly prohibited by university policy.

KU is committed to taking affirmative action in employment and education programs for underutilized group members and protected class citizens. The university also is committed to providing equal opportunity in all aspects of education and employment. Full texts of university policies on nondiscrimination, equal opportunity and affirmative action, sexual harassment, and racial and ethnic harassment are available at www.hreo.ku.edu/policies_procedures/eo_aa_policies.

Inquiries regarding the affirmative action program, equal opportunity policy, nondiscrimination policy, and reports or allegations of discrimination or harassment on the Lawrence campus should be made to Linda Fund, assistant director, Department of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity, Carruth-O’Leary Hall, 1246 West Campus Rd., Room 103, Lawrence, KS 66045-7505, (785) 864-3686, www.hreo.ku.edu. On the KU Medical Center campus, contact Jayne Owen, director, Equal Opportunity Office, KU Medical Center, 1040 Wescoe, Mail Stop 2014, 3901 Rainbow Blvd., Kansas City, KS 66160, (913) 588-1206, (913) 588-7963 (TDD), www.kumc.edu/eoo.

KU catalogs are available in alternate format upon request. Contact Melissa Manning, (785) 864-2620 (v/TTY), manning@ku.edu, in Lawrence; or Carol Wagner, (913) 588-7813 (V) or (913) 588-7963 (TDD), cwagner@kumc.edu, at KU Medical Center.

Tuition and Fees
Tuition and fees are assessed by the Office of the University Registrar. A full description of tuition and fees is available each semester at www.registrar.ku.edu/fees. Rates are set by the Kansas Board of Regents and are subject to change. See www.tuition.ku.edu for current information.

For a copy of the statutes and regulations governing who qualifies for resident tuition, write to the Office of the University Registrar, Strong Hall, 1450 Jayhawk Blvd., Room 121, Lawrence, KS 66045-7535. See also www.registrar.ku.edu/residency.

Area Research Offices
The school supports research and policy development in a number of key areas, providing leadership and resources at the local, state, and national levels:
- Office of Aging and Long-Term Care.
- Office of Adult Mental Health.

Social Welfare Alumni Society
The Alumni Society, an affiliate of the KU Alumni Association, keeps graduates connected with the school and its programs. Each year, the society sponsors Social Work Day, a conference that brings alumni together for educational programs and social events. The school’s programs are strengthened by the support of its alumni. More than 4,000 social welfare alumni practice in the United States and abroad.

The School’s Advisory Board
The Advisory Board of the School of Social Welfare is composed of individuals from the professional social work and business communities and from the community at large. The board links the school with its constituencies, informs diverse audiences about the school’s mission and programs, collaborates with faculty and students in carrying out special projects, and connects the school with resources essential to its goals. The Advisory Board plays a vital role in enhancing the school’s educational mission.

Faculty
The faculty’s scholarly interests, as reflected in teaching, research, and publications, span a wide range, including health, mental health, child welfare, adult and juvenile justice, gerontology, multiculturalism, women’s issues, history of social work, public policy analysis, homelessness, gender equity, and social administration.

School of Social Welfare faculty members hold doctoral degrees in social work, social welfare, psychology, and other fields. In addition, outstanding social work practitioners serve as part-time classroom instructors, and 280 social work practitioners serve as practicum instructors.

Licensing information: To be employed in Kansas, social workers must be licensed. Graduates of the B.S.W. and M.S.W. programs are eligible to take the licensing examination for the LBSW or LMSW designation, administered by the Behavioral Sciences Regulatory Board. Examinations are held throughout the year at several locations. Students may apply to take the examination before completing degree requirements. For more information, see www.ksbsrb.org.
Faculty members serve the public interest and the profession of social work as consultants and board members in professional and citizens’ organizations.

Contact the School of Social Welfare at the University of Kansas School of Social Welfare, Twente Hall, 1545 Lilac Lane, Lawrence, KS 66044-3184, (785) 864-4720, www.socwel.ku.edu.
The School of Social Welfare provides the education and experience necessary for a career in social work. By helping shape students’ capacity for caring, the school prepares social workers to carry out the unique purposes of the profession — to develop human potential, to promote individual well-being, and to bring about a more just society.

Social work is a major professional discipline in the broad institution of social welfare. The term social welfare denotes the dimensions of society concerned with human needs — health, education, economic security, housing, and mental health.

The undergraduate program of the KU School of Social Welfare prepares graduates for beginning generalist social work practice. The program defines generalist practice as maintaining focus on the interface between systems (i.e., individual, family, groups, organizations, and communities), with particular emphasis on

- The strengths inherent in these systems.
- The need to understand the role of gender, culture, sexual orientation, disability, race, and class in all phases of the social work process.
- The promotion of social and economic justice for those disenfranchised on the basis of the attributes listed above.
- The assumption of a critical perspective regarding different ways of knowing.

Beginning generalist practice uses multilevel methodology, depending on the needs of the client system, and incorporates a knowledge, value, and skill base that is transferable between and among diverse contexts and locations.

The B.S.W. program is offered on the Lawrence campus and as part of a degree-completion program at Kansas City Kansas Community College.

KCKCC Program. The B.S.W. curriculum is available at Kansas City Kansas Community College. The KCKCC curriculum is designed as a 2+2 degree-completion program. Associate of Arts degree holders interested in completing their undergraduate degrees take all of the necessary course work at KCKCC and receive a KU degree. For more information, contact the on-site program coordinator, Maxine Elmore, at (913) 288-7304.

Admission Requirements

- Submission of completed application forms, including three letters of recommendation.
- A grade-point average of 2.5 or above.
- Completion of 30 hours of course work, including mathematics and English composition I and II.

First-year students enter the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and complete at least two semesters of work (30 hours) before applying to the B.S.W. program.

Grade-point Average

Evaluation of transcripts submitted as part of the application for admission includes computation of grade-point average and is adjusted to include only courses that transfer.

Consult School of Social Welfare advisers before enrollment each semester.

The 2007 Fiske Guide to Colleges calls the Bachelor of Social Work program one of the strongest programs at KU.

Information about equivalencies to KU courses is available from academic counselors at community colleges and from the School of Social Welfare.
Bachelor of Social Work Degree Requirements

Primary responsibility for meeting graduation requirements rests with the student.

- A minimum of 124 credit hours of course work, including 10 credit hours of field practicum. (Forty hours of credit must be in courses not open to first- and second-year students. At least 24 of the last 30 credit hours must be taken in residence.)
- A 2.5 minimum grade-point average for all classroom work.
- A 2.5 minimum grade-point average in required social work courses.
- Successful completion of field practicum.
- Recommendation by the faculty of the School of Social Welfare to the chancellor and the Kansas Board of Regents that the degree be granted.

Curriculum

Professional Socialization (SW 220, 623)

Students prepare for the responsibilities of social work, involving professional functioning, knowledge and use of professional ethics, values, attitudes, and skills. Students analyze their values critically to develop a unified personal and professional framework. Students develop their professional commitment to the code of ethics and understanding of social work to govern their professional behavior.

Human Behavior and the Social Environment (SW 530, 532)

Students acquire a knowledge and understanding of individual, group, community, institutional, and cultural dynamics. Students become familiar with concepts, theories, and empirical findings that enable them to practice effectively as professional social workers.

Research (SW 540, 541)

Students achieve a command of fundamental social work research. A knowledge of the scientific method is acquired and applied to current research. Students learn to apply critical thinking to professional literature.

Social Work Practice (SW 510, 555, 610, 612, 630, 631, 632, 633)

Students acquire knowledge and skills needed for effective social work practice with diverse populations. The accumulated knowledge and understanding of the social work curriculum come together in the practice courses.

Social Policy (SW 620, 621)

Students develop the capacity for critical analysis of social problems, policies and programs. Students analyze social work practice to understand the effect of policy on direct service. Basic policy analysis skills acquired in the first course are applied to specified areas of practice, applying analytical skills to problems, policies, and programs.

Field Practicum (SW 601)

Students acquire competence as beginning generalist social work practitioners. With instructional supervision in a social work agency, students apply their knowledge and expand their practice skills from their course work to real-life situations. Practicum is a two-semester course (fall-spring) for seniors, who spend two days a week in practicum assignments.

Field Practicum

The field education office works with community agencies throughout Kansas and western Missouri to provide field education opportunities for students. Students are placed in these agencies through a collaborative process between the office, the student, and the agency. The field education office is responsible for ensuring that all field placements are able to provide appropriate learning opportunities for students and that qualified field instructors will be available to the student. The field education office arranges all placements.

Field placements are mainly in the Kansas City and Topeka areas, with a limited number of settings in Lawrence, Leavenworth, and other Kansas and Missouri communities. Students are responsible for transportation to the assigned field practicum. Most agencies also require a student to have transportation available for agency assignments.

B.S.W. students have one practicum placement during the senior year, concurrent with enrollment in the practice courses. Senior B.S.W. students attend field practicum two days a week throughout fall and spring semesters. Seniors spend a minimum of 480 clock hours in practicum. Practicum is a 10-credit-hour, year-long course graded on an S/U basis. A satisfactory (S) grade is a requirement for the B.S.W. degree. At the end of the first semester, a grade of P is given for satisfactory progress toward completion of the course. No credit is given for partial completion (fewer than 10 credit hours) of practicum.

An orientation is held in the fall, before the beginning of classes, for all students entering a field practicum and the field liaisons who represent the school. The Field Education Handbook explains practicum-related expectations and policies. Students are responsible for the material in the handbook.

Every student in practicum has both a B.S.W. practicum instructor and a field liaison. The practicum instructor is responsible for designing learning opportunities, planning practicum assignments, and serving as the student’s teacher in the practicum. The field liaison is employed by the School of Social Welfare to work with practicum instructors and students in each agency, to help integrate practicum and class instruction, to evaluate student performance, and to assist if difficulties arise.

Because of the necessity for continuity in both client service and learning, the maximum time for a break between semesters in practicum is three weeks, regardless of time allowable according to the university calendar.

Advising
Early advising is recommended for students interested in social work. Presocial work students (both KU and transfer) are encouraged to attend group advising through the school during each enrollment period.

For students who plan to transfer to KU but currently attend another college, advising is available by telephone or e-mail.

Once a student is admitted, a member of the school’s faculty is assigned as an adviser to assist the student with course selection, career plans, and academic needs. The adviser also reviews the student’s academic progress to help ensure that degree requirements are fulfilled. Students consult with their academic advisers before enrollment each semester.

Four semesters, beginning with fall semester, are necessary to complete professional social work courses required for the degree.

Transfer of Credit
Transfer credit allows specific course work from other accredited colleges or universities to count toward the B.S.W. degree. Decisions to accept prior transcript credits are made by the university’s transcript evaluator during the admission process. Exceptions must be petitioned through the B.S.W. director. Petitions must be accompanied by a catalog description and a syllabus of the course and submitted at the time of application.

Community college equivalents to KU courses are available on the Office of Admissions and Scholarships Web site (www.admissions.ku.edu/requirements/credtran/find.shtml) or from community college counselors. A maximum of 64 credit hours from a community college may be transferred to count toward the B.S.W. degree.

Prior Work Experience
In accordance with national curriculum policy, prior employment and life experience may not be credited toward classroom course work or practicum requirements.

University Honors Program
The School of Social Welfare encourages qualified students to participate in the University Honors Program. This program offers outstanding students an expanded opportunity to develop special abilities and interests. To make an appointment to meet with the staff of the honors program, call (785) 864-4225, www.honors.ku.edu.

Grading
Undergraduate courses offered by the School of Social Welfare are graded A, B, C, D, F, and, in practicum, Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. Plus/minus grades are calculated in the overall grade-point average. S grades count as hours toward graduation but are not computed in the grade-point average. U grades do not count toward graduation.

No required junior- or senior-level social work course in which a student receives a grade below a C– will be counted toward the major. A student must retake the course and earn a grade of C– or better to fulfill the requirement for the major. Enrollment in SW 532, SW 541, SW 612, and SW 621 is contingent upon the student’s earning a grade of C– or better in SW 530, SW 540, SW 510, and SW 621. Any student who receives a grade lower than a C– in a required social work class will be required to attend an Academic Performance Committee meeting to discuss plans for continuation in the major.

Dean’s List
Students who have been accepted into the B.S.W. program, enrolled in a minimum of 9 credit hours during the semester, and earn a semester grade-point average in the top 10 percent of their class (junior or senior) qualify for the KU School of Social Welfare B.S.W. Dean’s List.

Credit/No Credit
An undergraduate student may elect to be graded CR (Credit) or NC (No Credit) in one course each semester. This option is not available for any required social work courses. The form is available from the School of Social Welfare office. For more information, see the University of Kansas Undergraduate Catalog.

Required Hours for Field Practicum
Students with 9 or more remaining elective or general education requirement credit hours in the fall of the senior year must complete these hours before beginning field placement. Students who are completing these hours may take SW 620, SW 621, and the mini-courses, but they cannot enroll in SW 610, SW 612, or SW 623.

Withdrawal
A student who must withdraw from school should discuss the matter with the adviser and complete the appropriate procedures in the office of the School of Social Welfare.

Any student re-entering the program after more than a five-year absence must retake all required social work courses for the major, except SW 220. Credit toward the major will not be given for any required social work course taken more than five years previous to re-entry.

Financial Aid
Students who need financial help to attend KU should apply to the University of Kansas, Office of Student Financial Aid, Strong Hall, 1450 Jayhawk Blvd., Room 50, Lawrence, KS 66045-7535, (785) 864-4700, e-mail: financialaid@ku.edu, Web site: www.financialaid.ku.edu.

Graduation with Distinction
The top 10 percent of the graduates of the B.S.W. program each year receive degrees with distinction.

Students interested in social work may sign up for the Presocialwork listserv, which keeps students informed about activities, group advising times, and financial aid opportunities.

To sign up for the listserv, send an e-mail message to lorim@ku.edu.

Degrees are awarded three times a year: in May, July, and December.
Built upon the commitment to a strengths perspective of social work practice, the Master of Social Work program offers educational opportunities for those who wish to expand their skills in helping individuals and communities develop their capacities to support and enhance the quality of life for all people. The school recognizes that individuals with a natural skill in helping come from all backgrounds and encourages them to apply.

The Master of Social Work degree prepares graduates for advanced social work practice in one of two broad areas — clinical social work practice with individuals, families, and groups or social work advocacy, community practice, and administration aimed at macro-level practice. The first level of the master’s curriculum is a generalist foundation required of all students. The foundation consists of six classroom courses and a two-semester practicum that reflects the generalist intent.

At the advanced level, students choose a concentration in clinical social work practice with a focus in a particular field of practice — child and family, health/mental health, aging, school social work — or social work administrative and advocacy practice. The advanced-level practicum implements the student’s choice of concentration.

The advanced-standing program admits individuals with B.S.W. degrees with strong academic records. Applicants generally have relevant post-degree work experience.

The regular M.S.W. program is available full time or part time. Full-time students complete the program in two years. Part-time students complete the program in either three or four years. On KU’s Edwards Campus, part-time students can complete the M.S.W. curriculum in afternoon, evening, and Saturday classes.

Admission Requirements

Regular M.S.W.
Two-year Full-time or Part-time Program. Applicants must have bachelor’s degrees from accredited universities before the start of the M.S.W. program course and field work. Applicants’ undergraduate studies must reflect the successful completion of liberal arts courses including social sciences and humanities courses that focus on the development of knowledge in communication; social, biological, and behavioral sciences; history; philosophy and the ways in which knowledge is gained and applied; and the values of a multicultural and diverse society.

Advanced-standing M.S.W.

Advanced-standing Criteria. The Advanced-standing program requires a bachelor’s degree from a CSWE-accredited social work program with a grade-point average of at least 3.0. A higher grade point average is desirable. Applicants who earned their social work bachelor’s degrees within the two years before applying to the M.S.W. program must submit a copy of their practicum evaluations as well as a letter of recommendation for graduate studies completed by one of their practice class instructors. In addition, all applicants who have been employed in a social work setting should submit a letter of recommendation from at least one supervisor who can address the applicant’s knowledge, skill, and readiness for graduate education.

Admission decisions take into account the applicants’ types and amounts of social service experience, their letters of recommendation, and their undergraduate grade-point averages and courses completed.

The Advanced-standing program is designed as a full-time, one-year program. Under special and limited circumstances, a part-time program may be allowed, if the student’s plan for part-time study is consistent with the educational mission of the school and has been approved by the associate dean for academic programs. To be considered for Advanced Standing, current seniors should submit transcripts that document their fall semester grades and successful practicum experience. All applications to either the two-year or the Advanced-standing program become the property of the University of Kansas.

Application Procedure for All Options

A minimum undergraduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4-point scale is required. The admissions committee takes into account special circumstances such as improvement of grades in upper-division or graduate courses. We look for evidence of an applicant’s commitment to the well-being of people and communities; a well-developed sense of self; emotional maturity; and the ability to think clearly, creatively, and independently. Graduate Record Examination scores are not required.

Submit your application online at www.socwel.ku.edu or request application materials from

The University of Kansas School of Social Welfare
M.S.W. Admissions
1545 Lilac Lane
Lawrence, KS 66044-3184

(785) 864-4720, admissionsmsw@ku.edu
Applicants are evaluated on undergraduate grade-point average, graduate course work (if any), volunteer and work experience especially related to social work, and evidence of potential for a social work career in the application narrative and references.

Applications can be filled out and submitted online at www.socwel.ku.edu beginning October 1 each year. The applicant is responsible for gathering the following supporting materials and submitting them in one envelope: one copy of student-issued transcripts from all previously attended schools regardless of degree status, three letters of reference on forms provided, and a nonrefundable application fee of $25 for online applications or $45 for paper applications. Applicants submitting paper applications also must include the School of Social Welfare application and a narrative statement. Please observe the specific instructions provided in application packets and on our Web site.

Applications are reviewed beginning in October. Admission decisions are made in the spring of each year. Advanced-standing M.S.W. students begin in June; all other M.S.W. students (full time and part time) begin in August.

Final Deadlines. All applications are reviewed upon receipt. The deadline for the Advanced-standing program is January 15. The deadline for applications to the Regular M.S.W. program (full time or part time) is February 15. Early application is encouraged. For students submitting applications by December 1, the application fee is waived.

To ensure your privacy, we are unable to provide admission decisions over the telephone. All applicants will be notified in writing.

All application materials become the property of the University of Kansas.

Planning Your Commitment
Students are admitted on either a full- or a part-time basis. In making decisions about full- or part-time study, students should consider that each class requires several hours of preparation each week. The program is demanding; students can expect reading assignments and paper preparation and should be prepared to fulfill practicum commitments averaging two-and-one-half to three days per week. Students admitted part-time take 6 credit hours each semester their first year. Full-time students enroll in 16 credit hours each semester. Currently, the M.S.W. program is a weekday program in Lawrence. Late-afternoon, evening, and Saturday courses are offered on the KU Edwards Campus in Overland Park.

M.S.W. Degree Requirements
The School of Social Welfare requires a total of 64 credit hours for the M.S.W. degree, consisting of

- Thirty-six credit hours of classroom work maintaining a grade-point average of 3.0 (B) — a total of 108 grade points on a 4-point grading system.*
- Twenty-eight credit hours of field practicum with an S grade for satisfactory performance.
- Recommendation of the faculty of the School of Social Welfare to the registrar that the master’s degree be granted.
- Two sequential semesters of 10-credit-hour enrollments are necessary to meet residence requirements.

*See also Academic Performance under General Student Information.

Foundation Curriculum

Social Work Practice (SW 710, 711)
Based on the school’s unique strengths perspective, courses provide core knowledge and skills essential for working with individuals, families, and groups.

Community and Organizational Practice (SW 713)
This practice class gives students an understanding of the core elements of practice in organizations and communities.

Social Policy and Program Analysis (SW 720)
Course emphasizes the effect of social problems, policies, and programs on people and gives students the skills to analyze the effectiveness of policies and programs.

Human Behavior in the Social Environment (SW 730)
Theoretical underpinnings essential for effective social work practice and for understanding the behavior of individuals, families, groups, and communities.

Clinical social work and social work administrative and advocacy practice concentrations are offered at the master’s level.

In the M.S.W. program, students have two practica, one during the foundation level and a second at the advanced level.
Social Work Research (SW 740)
Course offers students the opportunity to become informed consumers of social-work-relevant research and to develop skill in evaluating the effectiveness of their own work with clients and the effectiveness of the programs in which they work.

Field Practicum (SW 701)
Community agencies throughout Kansas and western Missouri offer practicum opportunities for the application of knowledge gained in other sequences.
Field experiences for foundation students extend the curriculum goal of generalist social work and are designed so that fundamental skills across multiple levels of intervention are acquired.

Foundation Courses
The following courses are required (32 credit hours):

Semester 1 (16 credit hours)
- SW 701 Basic Field Practicum .......................................................... 7
- SW 710 Social Work Practice I .......................................................... 3
- SW 713 Community and Organizational Practice .............................. 3
- SW 720 Social Policy and Program Analysis ................................. 3

Semester 2 (16 credit hours)
- SW 701 Basic Field Practicum .......................................................... 7
- SW 711 Social Work Practice II ......................................................... 3
- SW 730 Human Behavior in the Social Environment ...................... 3
- SW 740 Social Work Research .......................................................... 3

Advanced-level Curriculum
Students at the advanced level select a concentration in either clinical social work practice or social work administrative and advocacy practice. This selection is based on their goals of either working directly with individuals, families, and groups or at the macro-level of practice in advocacy and community practice. Students may not enroll in advanced-level classes before completing foundation requirements.

Clinical Social Work Concentration
(32 credit hours). The clinical social work concentration prepares students for social work practice with individuals, families and small groups. The focus of the student's academic preparation is twofold: On developing the assessment skills needed to identify the client's personal, interpersonal, environmental and/or systems needs; and on selecting, in concert with the client, appropriate interventions that are evidence based and supported as best practices. Students are exposed to social work theories and methods that are applicable to the range of practice settings in which clinical social work services are provided and simultaneously have the opportunity to apply this developing knowledge in the field education component of their graduate program. Students who anticipate taking the Licensed Specialist Clinical Social Worker (LSCSW) examination should enroll in the clinical social work practice concentration.

Semester 3
- SW 801 Advanced Field Practicum: Clinical Practice ................. 7
- SW 810 Clinical Social Work Practice ........................................... 3
- Integrative Seminar ................................................................. 3

Students must select an integrative seminar that complements the advanced field practicum. Courses include SW 830 Social Work in Child and Family Settings, SW 832 Social Work in Health Care and Mental Health Settings, and SW 833 Social Work and Aging.

Diversity Selective ................................................................. 3
This cluster of courses is organized around understanding diversity and applying that understanding to specific populations of people who have been marginalized and oppressed.

Semester 4
- SW 801 Advanced Field Practicum: Clinical Practice .......... 7
- SW 811 Clinical Practice Selective ............................................. 3

This selection of offerings emphasizes application of advanced theoretical and practice principles to client systems.

Clinical Practice Electives .......................................................... 6
The clinical practice electives offer students an opportunity to acquire in-depth knowledge in a core area of clinical social work practice.

(For students expecting to sit for the LSCSW license, at least one of the clinical electives must meet the BSRB requirement for diagnosis and treatment. Those interested in school social work should take SW 834 as one of their elective courses.)

KU is the only institution in Kansas to offer bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees in social work.

Faculty members engage in community-based research that helps improve social services for the poor, the mentally ill, children, youth, families, and the elderly. Faculty also lead summer study abroad courses in international social work.
Social Work Administrative and Advocacy Practice Concentration

(32 credit hours). The social work administrative and advocacy practice curriculum prepares graduates for management or advocate positions in public and voluntary human service organizations. The concentration helps students achieve competence in managerial and advocacy practice grounded in the knowledge and values of social work. Knowledge and skill areas include program design, managing information, managing people, managing resources, community advocacy and program evaluation. This concentration prepares students to be program managers, supervisors, agency administrators, program monitors, advocates and evaluators, and social planners with voluntary health and welfare planning agencies; federal, state, and local planning bodies; and advocacy and self-help organizations.

Semester 3
SW 804 Advanced Field Practicum: Social Work Administration .................................................. 7
SW 840 Social Program Design and Management ................................................................. 3
SW 841 Advanced Policy and Programs .............................................................................. 3
SW 849 Mastering the Use of Financial Resources for Social Work Practice .................................................. 3

Semester 4
SW 804 Advanced Field Practicum: Social Work Administration .................................................. 7
SW 842 Using Outcomes for Administrative and Advocacy Practice .................................................. 3
SW 843 Strengthening Staff Performance in a Diverse Workplace .................................................. 3
Advanced Administrative Practice Selective .............................................................................. 3
This selective extends and deepens students' skills and knowledge in administrative and advocacy practice and expands their expertise in client-centered change at the community and organizational level.

Advanced-standing Program

The advanced-standing program requires an enrollment of 38 credit hours, as follows:

- A summer enrollment in two classes:
  1. SW 712, a social work practice class organized around the school’s major curriculum themes, and
  2. an elective course selected by the student to broaden the base of knowledge. Electives are offered in various locations. (Students must earn a minimum grade of B in SW 712 to continue.)
- The advanced level of the M.S.W. program in Lawrence or Kansas City on the KU Edwards Campus (32 credit hours). No credit will be given for courses taken before admission. The advanced level of this program may be taken full time or extended up to two years, with approval of the associate dean. Two sequential semesters of 10-credit-hour enrollments are necessary to meet residence requirements.

Field Practicum

The field education office works with community agencies throughout Kansas and western Missouri to provide field education opportunities for students. Students are placed in these agencies through a collaborative process between the office, the student, and the agency. The field education office is responsible for ensuring that all field placements are able to provide appropriate learning opportunities for students and that qualified field instructors will be available to the student. The field education office arranges all placements.

Students have two practicum placements, one during the foundation level and one during the advanced level of the program. Each placement is for two consecutive semesters, 14 credit hours per year. Foundation-level students engage in practicum for 20 hours a week, for a two-semester period of 30 weeks for a minimum of 600 clock hours. Advanced-level students spend 24 hours a week in practicum for a two-semester period for a minimum of 720 clock hours. In both years, the practicum is concurrent with required practice courses. Practicum is graded on an S/U basis. A satisfactory (S) grade in both the foundation and advanced level practicum is a requirement for the M.S.W. degree. At the end of the first semester, a grade of P is given for satisfactory progress toward completion of the course. No credit is given for partial completion (fewer than 14 credit hours) of either practicum.

The foundation-level field practicum provides the necessary learning opportunities for the achievement of foundation curriculum objectives and development of a generalist perspective on practice. Advanced-level practicum provides the learning opportunities essential for completing the objectives of either the clinical or social work administrative and advocacy concentrations. Clinical concentration practica are linked to integrative seminars in the following fields of practice: children and families, health/mental health, or aging.

An orientation is held in the fall, before the beginning of classes, for all students entering a field practicum and the field liaisons who represent the school. The Field Education

Field agencies generally require that students be in the agency during regular operating hours (Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) A limited number of agencies offer flexible practicum hours, including evenings and weekends. However, all students must be in the practicum at least one full eight-hour day per week, during regular operating hours, in order to develop the agency context for practice.
Handbook explains practicum-related expectations and policies. Students are responsible for the material in the handbook.

Every student in practicum has both an M.S.W. practicum instructor and a field liaison. The practicum instructor is responsible for designating learning opportunities, planning practicum assignments, and serving as the student’s teacher in the practicum. The field liaison is employed by the School of Social Welfare to work with practicum instructors and students in each agency, to help integrate practicum and class instruction, to evaluate student performance, and to assist if difficulties arise.

Field placements are mainly in the Kansas City, Topeka, and Wichita areas, with a limited number of settings in Lawrence, Leavenworth, and other Kansas and Missouri communities. Students are responsible for transportation to the assigned field practicum. All practicum placements require that students be available for a minimum of eight hours per week in a setting during weekday hours, with more time required depending on the learning needs of the students and program needs of the agency. Practicum placements that provide any night and weekend hours are extremely limited. Most agencies also require a student to have transportation available for agency assignments.

Because of the necessity for continuity in both client service and learning, the maximum time for a break between semesters in practicum is three weeks, regardless of time allowable according to the university calendar.

Alternative Plans

When a student’s current employment includes appropriate practice opportunities, but the student is not interested in applying for an Employment-based Practicum (see below), the practicum may be postponed by approval of the associate dean for academic programs until other courses at that level have been completed. The student must submit a practicum exception form to the director of field education, who makes a recommendation to the associate dean. Following the completion of course work, a practicum may be completed either in a two-to-three-day, two-semester plan or a block plan, four to five days a week over a shorter time than two semesters. Enrollment and fees for practicum are required during the time the student is in the field practicum.

Employment-based Practicum

An Employment-based Practicum (EBP) allows students to use their places of employment as sites for field practicum. Students may apply for an EBP if they meet the following criteria:

1. The student is working in a human service agency that can provide educational opportunities for the student to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary for advancement to the next level of practice.
2. These educational opportunities can be specified and are entirely different from the student’s employment responsibilities.
3. The agency is supportive of the student’s educational objectives and provides support for the student.
4. A qualified field instructor, who is not the student’s employment supervisor, is available to supervise the student.

An Employment-based Practicum is not an avenue for students to get educational credit for the work they do in their places of employment, a way for employers to get more hours of work out of an employee they value through adding the practicum on to a full-time job, or a special practicum.

Although the setting for an EBP may be different from a traditional practicum, all of the expectations for field practicum specified by the School of Social Welfare are still requirements for an Employment-based Practicum.

Employment-based Practicum application forms and guidelines are available from the field education office and online. To be considered, the completed EBP application must be submitted to the field education office by the deadline dates listed on the application.

Prior Work Experience

In accordance with national curriculum policy, prior employment and life experience may not be credited toward classroom course work or practicum requirements.

The school’s philosophy stresses a practice-based curriculum that encourages students to integrate classroom learning with practicum doing.

The school encourages applications from students with diverse backgrounds. Applicants are invited to indicate ethnic status on their application forms.
Joint Degree Program in Social Work and Law (M.S.W./J.D.)

The Juris Doctor/Master of Social Work joint degree program combines into four years of study the three-year J.D. program offered by the School of Law and the two-year M.S.W. degree offered by the School of Social Welfare. The social work practitioner gains an understanding of the legal environment in which he or she works and its impact on social problems. The legal practitioner learns how social problems shape the law.

Applicants must apply to and meet the criteria for admission to both schools. Contact each school for separate admission information.

School Social Work

The Kansas Department of Education no longer certifies school social workers. However, the School of Social Welfare strongly recommends that students interested in practicing in a school setting take the following:

- A practicum experience at the advanced level in a public school setting under the direct supervision of a certified school social worker.
- Clinical social work concentration.
- SW 834 Social Work in Schools as one clinical elective.
- SPED 725 is highly recommended as an elective choice for students planning a future in school social work.

Credit for Course Work Taken Outside the School of Social Welfare

Clinical students who wish to substitute a course taken outside the School of Social Welfare for a clinical elective must petition the clinical committee before the beginning of the semester (for fall, August 1; for spring, December 15). Petitions must include the course syllabus, verification that the course is a graduate course, and a transcript upon completing the course showing a grade of B or higher. Requests submitted after the beginning of the semester will not be considered. Students who choose field placements that require particular course work are responsible for meeting the academic requirements of the school as well as the field agency. No more than 3 hours of course work taken outside the school will be accepted to meet the elective program requirement.

Social work administrative and advocacy practice students interested in taking a course offered outside the program must consult the chair of the social work administrative and advocacy practice committee.

Credit for continuing education institutes and workshops or programs conducted by nonaccredited or nondegree-granting organizations are not accepted.

Students who request transfer from other programs accredited by the Council of Social Work Education must go through the admission process and provide transcripts, a syllabus for each course for which credit is being requested, descriptions of field practicum content, written evaluations of field practicum performance, and the number of practicum clock hours.

Students who request transfer from nonaccredited programs are expected to test out of some required foundation courses. Applications for transfer must be received by January 15.

Testing Out of First Year Courses

Students who believe they have already mastered the content of SW 720, SW 730 or SW 740 may attempt to test out of the course at a designated time at the beginning of the semester in which the course is offered. To test out, students take the equivalent of a final examination for the course. Up to 6 credit hours may be waived for testing out successfully. A student may attempt to test out of a course only once.

Intermit and Withdrawal

Students in good academic standing may apply to intermit (not take courses) after successfully completing at least one semester. Students may intermit for one year without the necessity of reapplying. Application for intermit status must be submitted to the associate dean of academic programs for approval and must include a statement of support from the student’s academic adviser. Students granted intermit status must verify in writing their intention to return for the fall semester by February 1 or by September 1 for the spring semester.

Any student who is considering intermit status or withdrawal from the program must consult with his or her adviser.

School of Social Welfare faculty members are recognized internationally as leaders in the development of the strengths model of social work practice.

Degrees are awarded three times a year, in May, August, and December. Hooding ceremonies are held each May for those who have completed graduate degrees.

Primary responsibility for meeting graduation requirements rests with the student.
An exit statement must be submitted for the record, indicating the reason for intermit or withdrawal.

Changing from Full-time to Part-time Status

Full-time students who drop any class during the foundation year also must drop SW 701 Basic Field Practicum and SW 710/711 Social Work Practice I and II.

Grading

The basic system for M.S.W. courses is an A, B, C, F system, in which A represents exceptional performance, B represents graduate standards, C represents below graduate standards, and F represents failure, unsatisfactory work with no credit granted toward a degree. Plus/minus grades may be given and are calculated in the overall grade-point average.

No course may be retaken to improve a grade.

Incomplete

See Student Advancement Policy, page 20.

Financial Aid

For financial assistance for all program locations, apply to the University of Kansas, Office of Student Financial Aid, Strong Hall, 1450 Jayhawk Blvd., Room 50, Lawrence, KS 66045-7535, (785) 864-4700, financialaid@ku.edu. Financial aid for Lawrence and Kansas City is processed through the Lawrence campus office.

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid must be filed for you to be eligible for loan and grant programs administered by the University of Kansas. The FAFSA is available online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Start the process early, before you know your admission status.

A small number of advanced-level field practicum placements may pay a stipend to students. Effort is made to assign these settings to students whose financial need is high.

Scholarships and Awards

Scholarships are awarded to advanced-level M.S.W. students from the following funds established with the Kansas University Endowment Association:

- Aase George Scholarships
- Dot Simmons and Dodie Abbot Scholarship
- Esther Twente Scholarships
- Mildred Webb Sigler Scholarship in Health Care
- School of Social Welfare Advisory Board Scholarships

Awards for outstanding field practicum performance are given annually in recognition of Margaret Schutz Gordon, Director of Practicum, 1970-1983.

William and Monte Murphy Fellowships are available based on need. William Palm Fellowships are available for underrepresented ethnic groups. Students must be in good academic standing. The FAFSA must be filed as part of the application process. Please contact the school for more information.

International Students

All students from abroad, including students from English-speaking countries, must visit KU’s Applied English Center for verification of English language skills. You may be required to take an English Language Proficiency Test and to enroll in English language courses if you do not pass that test.

Note: The need to take English courses may delay your start in or extend the length of the M.S.W. program.

If you are admitted to the M.S.W. program, your admission to the School of Social Welfare will be provisional. You will need to visit the KU International Student and Scholar Services Office, Strong Hall, 1450 Jayhawk Blvd., Room 204, Lawrence, KS 66045-7515, isss@ku.edu. You must also visit the Applied English Center, Lippincott Hall, 1410 Jayhawk Blvd., Room 204, Lawrence, KS 66045-7515, aec@ku.edu.

The International Conference on Social Welfare recommends that before seeking professional education for social work in the United States, a student should complete comparable study available in his or her own country and acquire a minimum of two years of social work experience there.

International students also must submit:

1. Original bank statements showing evidence of your and/or your sponsor’s financial ability to pay for your educational and living expenses. Adequate health insurance coverage also is required.
2. Evidence of having taken the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) examination within the past two years. Minimum scores are subject to change. Please visit the application area of our Web site for the latest minimum scores.
3. One official, original-language copy of your academic records with a certified English translation.

Postgraduate Education Options

A special program has been created to help meet the continuing education needs of professional social workers in the community. For more information on the Professional and Community Education Program, see page 3.

The KU Edwards Campus is near I-435 and Quivira Road in Overland Park, Kansas. Edwards Campus programs are tailored to the special demands of working adults. Students earn the same credit hours for Edwards Campus courses as they would for Lawrence campus courses.

The resources of KU’s libraries, among the nation’s largest research university collections, are available to students in Lawrence and on the Edwards Campus.
Doctor of Philosophy

Challenging ideas and creative thinking are happening at KU’s School of Social Welfare, which is consistently ranked in the top 10 public university programs. Our doctoral program prepares students to be leaders of the profession through their advanced research, scholarship, and teaching. Our school is known internationally as a prime innovator in the Strengths Perspective for social work practice. Doctoral students have played a key role in this exciting initiative.

Our Program Highlights

• Creative, Critical Thinking about Practice, Policy, and Theory
• Quantitative and Qualitative Skills for Research
• Innovative Scholarship and Teaching
• A Student-Centered Educational Approach
• Financial Supports and Mentoring for Students
• Full- and Part-time Enrollment Options
• Personal and Community Strengths
• Appreciation for Human Diversity and Global Perspective
• Social Justice

Our students become conversant with the excitement and creativity in the profession — how professionals come to know what they know, how they put that knowledge into practice, and how it affects consumers.

Consider Our Program

The Ph.D. program offers effective alternatives for building knowledge and inquiring into social work practice and social welfare policy. We are dedicated to educating scholars who can develop knowledge for the profession through quantitative, qualitative, theoretical, or conceptual analyses, and historicographic investigations.

The Curriculum

Our courses prepare students as scholars with conceptual and methodological sophistication.

• History and philosophy courses focus on the intellectual history and current status and innovation of social work ideas, ideologies, and theories.
• In the research sequence, students learn both qualitative and quantitative methodologies, designs and advanced modes of analysis, and appropriate applications.
• The practice/policy courses provide the opportunity to analyze policies of interest to students and discover “best” practices as they affect a population. Students critically consider human problems, strengths, and strategies for change and transformation.
• Qualifying papers and electives help students develop deep understanding in their areas of special interest.
• Seminars on teaching enable students to be effective educators.
• The dissertation involves advanced and focused research into a topic selected by the student, based on quantitative, qualitative, historical, or other methods of inquiry.

Ph.D. Admission

Admission Criteria

Criteria used in judging applications are the applicant’s potential for excellence in academic performance, professional practice experience, and potential for contributions to knowledge-building for social work.

Sources of judgment of these criteria include undergraduate and graduate transcripts; publications, presentations, research proposals, and scholarly works; references concerning professional practice and qualifications for doctoral-level study and research; statement of research and scholarly interests; and information on the applicant’s experience in professional practice.

Qualifications for Admission

To be considered for admission, an applicant must meet the following requirements:

1. Minimum 3.5 graduate grade-point average required.
2. M.S.W. degree preferred. Applicants with master’s degrees related to social work and affiliation with social work activities and values are considered.
3. Completion of the Graduate Record Examination within the past five years. Scores in at least the 50th percentile in two of the three test areas are preferred.
4. Basic statistical competence as demonstrated by completion of a basic statistics course at the graduate or undergraduate level with a grade of B or above within the last five years, or plan to complete the course.
5. Two years of social work or related practice; two years’ post-master’s professional social work experience is preferred.
6. Ability for doctoral study in social work, demonstrated by a written statement of interests in research relevant to social work, letters of recommendation, and scholarly or other professional achievement as indicated in a curriculum vitae and publications, if available.
7. Demonstrated ability for and interest in advanced scholarship and revision of existing bodies of knowledge.
8. For international students, completion of the Test of English as a Foreign Language within the past two years, demonstrating high proficiency.
9. Other requirements established by the Graduate School.

The admissions committee considers applicants without the M.S.W. who, through their professional activity, have been closely identified with the profession, its practice, and its values and ethics.

Application Procedure

Complete the Application for Admission to Graduate School and Supplemental Application form online at www.graduate.ku.edu.

Send one official copy of all undergraduate and graduate transcripts to the University of Kansas, Graduate Application Processing Center, 1450 Jayhawk Blvd., Room 313, Lawrence, KS 66045-7535.

In addition, the following materials must be sent to the University of Kansas School of Social Welfare, 1545 Lilac Lane, Room 107, Lawrence, KS 66044-3184:

- Graduate Record Examination scores.
- Letters of reference.
- International students also must submit TOEFL scores.
- Copies of scholarly work, such as journal articles, papers delivered, research reports, monographs, if any.
- Statement of statistics course taken: title, institution, date of completion, and grade; or plan to complete the course.
- Statement of scholarly and research interests in social work practice.

Applications are not reviewed until all materials are received. The deadline is May 1. Late applications are considered only on a space-available basis.

To allow time for consideration for financial assistance through assistantships, applications should be completed as early as possible and no later than May 1. Applications completed by November 15 receive priority for possible Graduate School fellowships. All application materials become the property of the University of Kansas.

International Students

International students from all regions of the world are encouraged to apply. Our program offers free Academic English Writing Skills tutoring to international students for whom English is a second language. Contact the school at the e-mail address below for more information about international student applications and resources and regulations of International Student and Scholar Services and the Applied English Center.

Application Timeline

To allow time for consideration for financial assistance through research and teaching assistantships, applications must be completed by May 1. Financial Aid

Financial assistance, including tuition and significant salary, is available from the school through teaching and research assistantships in a variety of research and training areas such as mental health, aging, child welfare, corrections, social policy, spiritual diversity, or other areas of faculty grants and interests. Due to more than $7 million in research grants, most of our doctoral students are able to obtain funding. To apply for financial support, you should so indicate on the application form and submit the application early. Apply by November 15 for Graduate School based fellowship consideration.

Teaching and Research

Our Ph.D. program contributes significantly to the model of strengths and community-based research, service, and education developed by the school. Under the direction of faculty members, many Ph.D. students help with research projects and serve as teaching assistants or field instructors. For example, doctoral research assistants work in such fields as aging, child welfare, criminal justice, diversity issues, domestic violence, health and disability, mental health, social policy, and spiritual diversity.

It is part of the school’s mission to focus on teaching, inquiry, and practice that benefit populations who experience oppression of all kinds. The school is committed to diversity and multicultural perspectives. Many research and service projects are committed to direct and positive impact on people of color, status minorities, and oppressed peoples, individually, collectively, and internationally.

Ph.D. Degree Requirements

The program requires a minimum of 54 credit hours. This total includes 24 hours of required courses, 12 hours of electives, qualifying papers, a comprehensive examination process, and the dissertation. In fulfilling elective hours, students may take graduate-level courses in any substantive area or research skills necessary for successful completion of their goals. Students can meet this requirement by taking electives in social science or other relevant disciplines in the Graduate School. Before students are certified as eligible to proceed to candidate status, they must complete course requirements, qualifying papers, and a dissertation proposal.

Required course work can be completed in two years. Commuting for one or two days per week is possible. Additional time is needed to complete the qualifying papers and dissertation. The program can be completed in 3 to 4 years of focused work. Students may start on a part-time basis but eventually must spend one year in residence, which entails two semesters of full-time course work (12 hours) and may include one summer session (6 hours); or a combination of 6 hours course work and half time appointment as a teaching or research assistant for two semesters.

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy in social work is granted by the Graduate School of the University of Kansas.

Student Advancement Policy
The goal of the school is to prepare students for the professional practice of social work. The school is responsible for creating a learning environment that enables students to become effective social work practitioners. The school is also responsible for determining whether students have demonstrated the required level of achievement — classroom performance, professional behavior, and ethical behavior — sufficient to interact positively with client systems. Advancement is a means by which faculty ensure that each person graduated with a degree from the University of Kansas School of Social Welfare has adequate skills, knowledge, and judgment to assume the responsibilities of a professional social worker.

Academic Performance
When a student is not making satisfactory progress toward a degree, the program chair reviews the student’s progress, in consultation with the adviser, appropriate classroom instructors, and practicum liaison, and makes a recommendation to the dean. The dean notifies the student of the final decision. Students are placed on probation if the grade-point average required for the degree (B.S.W.: 2.5; M.S.W.: 3.0) is not maintained, if an unsatisfactory grade is received in practicum, or if substantial work remains incomplete at the end of a semester. An approved completion plan must be on file to continue. M.S.W. students whose grade-point averages are below 2.85 may not enroll in 800-level courses without a specific plan developed by the school’s Academic Planning Committee. No M.S.W. student may enroll beyond degree requirements to improve the grade-point average.

M.S.W. students who maintain grade-point averages of at least 3.0 in the foundation courses are eligible to take additional courses beyond the minimum requirements.

Incomplete Grades
A temporary grade of Incomplete may be assigned to a student who, for a reason beyond the student’s control, has been unable to complete the required work in a course on time. It is the student’s responsibility to request an Incomplete from the instructor. A request signed by the student and the faculty member must be on file when grades are submitted. A student may not enroll in a course sequential to one in which he or she has an I or F letter grade.

An Incomplete not removed by the end of the next semester will be changed to an F.

Advising
Each student is assigned an academic adviser who assists with career and academic decision making. For M.S.W. students, scheduling advisers are available at the time of enrollment. For B.S.W. students, academic advisers must approve students’ proposed course schedules.

Both the baccalaureate and the master’s degree programs of the School of Social Welfare are accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

Three computer labs are available on the KU Edwards Campus for class assignments.
Guidelines for Conduct

Ethical Standards
The school has a professional value commitment that requires the highest standards of conduct in human interactions. Because of our belief in the dignity of individuals and their right to be treated with respect regardless of race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age, class, religious beliefs, and physical ability, the school does not condone prejudice, discrimination, or bigotry.

Harassment
The School of Social Welfare is committed to providing an educational and work environment that is free from harassment. A faculty group is available as Faculty Consultants on Harassment and Discrimination to any person in the school in response to problems of unethical or inappropriate treatment of individuals in the school and its field settings.

Academic Dishonesty
Academic dishonesty is a serious ethical violation. A student who takes credit for work produced by another may receive a failing grade.

Grounds for Dismissal
Behavior that is illegal, does not adhere to the NASW Code of Ethics, or reflects other forms of inappropriate professional behavior is grounds for dismissal. Unsatisfactory progress may also be grounds for dismissal (see Academic Performance, page 20.)

Students’ Rights to Confidentiality
Students may not be required to reveal personal information. Any course that requires self-disclosure as a teaching methodology must (1) be optional and (2) at the outset make explicit requirements for expectations of self-disclosure.

Confidentiality of Information
Names of clients, agencies, or agency personnel, when mentioned in class or assignments, must be disguised so as not to be recognizable.

Student Handbook
During orientation, students who are admitted to degree-seeking status receive a student handbook containing full descriptions of policies and other details. The student handbook is available online at www.socwel.ku.edu.

Student Participation
Students are encouraged to participate in school governance, serving in the school’s standing committees (program committees: B.S.W., M.S.W., Ph.D.; faculty search). Students serve as representatives to faculty meetings.

Professional Membership
Students are eligible for membership in the professional organization, the National Association of Social Workers.
Social Work Courses

SW 210 Contemporary Social Topics: (___) (1-3). Student will master basic writing skills and become proficient in several types of social work writing styles. LEC

SW 420 Social Work in Urban Settings (3). Students gain knowledge about the historical and current relationships between the definition of social problems, the development of social welfare policies, and the delivery of social services in urban settings. Students will learn to access current policies and practices as they impact local communities in the Kansas City area. LEC

SW 490 Directed Readings (1-3). Individual and supervised readings in selected areas of social welfare. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor and approval by dean’s office. IND

SW 510 Fundamentals of Social Work Practice (3). Introduces the basic concepts of social work practice including the focus and context of practice, the nature of a social work relationship; basic skills and techniques common to practice such as interviewing, engagement, information gathering, etc. Introduction to problem solving and social work roles. Prerequisite: SW 530, SW 540, and SW 555. LEC

SW 530 Human Behavior in the Social Environment (3). A study of theoretical frameworks for understanding human behavior. The theories include the developmental stages across the life cycle, abnormal behavior compared to normal, analysis of family and societal processes and their effects on the individual, and individual behavior in relation to social class, ethnicity, and cultural background. Junior social work classification required. LEC

SW 532 Community and Organizational Dynamics and Human Behavior (3). An analysis of community and organizational life with emphasis on human behavior dynamics. Systems operation and change are considered and related to social functioning, especially as it impinges on social welfare objectives. Junior social work classification required. LEC

SW 540 Fundamentals of Research in Social Work (3). An examination of the basic concepts and principles of scientific inquiry as applied to the social work profession’s quest for and utilization of knowledge. Positivistic and naturalistic methods of inquiry are covered. Other content includes conceptualization, operationalization, sample design, ethics, and client participation in the research process. Junior social work classification required. LEC

SW 541 Social Work Research Seminar (3). Focus is on applying material learned in SW 540 to the critique of empirical work in the social work arena and to the development of a proposal for a practice-based research project. Emphasis on assessing relevance of research to special populations. Content on the interpretation of graphs, tables, and statistical measures provided. Prerequisite: SW 540. LEC

SW 555 Topics in Diversity: (___) (3). This class focuses both generally on human diversity and the consequences of minority status in U.S. society, and specifically on how social work is practiced with one particular minority group. The specific focus may change from semester to semester. Junior social work classification required. LEC

SW 560 Topics in Social Welfare: (___) (1-3). This course covers a variety of topics on a rotating basis. These topics may include, but are not limited to, practice issues pertaining to child welfare, alcohol and other drug abuse, social work in health care settings, etc. Junior Social Work classification required. LEC

SW 601 Field Practicum (5). Students are assigned to social service agencies that provide generalist practice opportunities under the supervision of a qualified field instructor. This provides students with the opportunity to apply and test social work knowledge, values, and skills within an approved practice setting in order to gain competency as beginning social workers. This course is taken for two semesters (fall-spring), with credit being given only after completion of the second semester. Enrollment in this course must be concurrent with enrollment in SW 610 and SW 612. FLD

SW 610 Social Work Practice Seminar I (3). Focuses on learning and implementing the problem-solving and interaction models of practice to be applied to individuals, families, and small groups. Concurrent with SW 601, practicum; students bring issues with clients to class for discussion. Open only to BSW seniors. Prerequisite: SW 510. LEC

B.S.W. students work directly with clients in supervised senior-year practicum placements.

Two academic years, beginning in the fall, are necessary to complete professional social work courses required for the degree.
KU offers a full selection of social work courses.

Fall social work courses are prerequisite to spring courses.
The first of two-course sequence prepares students to enter the advanced level of the M.S.W. program. Course taken concurrently with SW 701 which provides students an opportunity to integrate theory and practice in work with clients. LEC

SW 711 Social Work Practice II (3). Second of two-course sequence extends the work begun in SW 710. Focus in the second course is on mastery of the basics of helping relationships and the development of intervention skills for the middle and ending phases of intervention. Content is structured to prepare students to enter the advanced level of the M.S.W. program. Course taken concurrently with SW 701. Prerequisite: SW 710. LEC

SW 712 Social Work Practice Seminar (3). Introduces advanced standing students to the themes of the school. Special emphasis is given to the Strengths Perspective, a multicultural approach to practice, and developing the skills to critically and reflectively think about one’s own practice. Advanced standing status required. LEC

SW 713 Community and Organizational Practice (3). Students will be exposed to a body of knowledge and skills necessary to practice with communities and organizations. An advocacy perspective will act as the course’s unifying theme with client well-being acting as the driving force behind the activities of community and organizational practitioners. LEC

SW 720 Social Policy and Program Analysis (3). This course provides a broad social context for identifying and analyzing social problems and social policy/program responses. Economical and social injustice policies are exemplars for understanding societal dynamics and evaluating related policies. Emphasis is given to the development of conceptual skills in identifying and analyzing needs addressed by programs and policies. LEC

SW 730 Human Behavior in the Social Environment (3). Course provides foundation knowledge about bio-psycho-social aspects of individual and family behavior. Theoretical perspectives on well being, dysfunction, and developmental processes are analyzed critically, especially concerning applicability to social work practice that supports client strengths, diversity, and social justice. A holistic conceptual framework is used to integrate these micro-system perspectives with larger environmental socio-political concerns. LEC

SW 740 Social Work Research (3). An examination of professionally relevant aspects of the nature of science: the nature of knowing, a constructed reality, the logic of explanation and inquiry, the nature of concepts, hypotheses, and assumptions. The content will include such issues as sampling, measurement reliability and validity, developing survey questions, types of qualitative and quantitative research, and an introduction to descriptive and inferential statistics. LEC

SW 755 Studies: ______ (1-3). This course provides the opportunity for experimentation with innovative course content in accordance with guidelines established by faculty. Subjects offered as topics include Social Work with AIDS, Family Mediation, Family Violence. LEC

The school supports research and policy development in a number of key areas, providing leadership and resources at the local, state, and national levels:

- Office of Aging and Long-Term Care.
- Office of Adult Mental Health.
vidual and group private practice situations. This course is designed to teach advanced knowledge and skills that transcend contextual factors in order to produce a variety of positive client outcomes in a range of practice situations. In addition, this course focuses on the commitment of social work practitioners to provide services to those groups who, by reason of class, race, sex, or other characteristics, are not ordinarily well served by the many institutions in this society. Course taken concurrently with SW 801 which provides an opportunity to integrate theory and practice in work with clients. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 811 Topics in Advanced Clinical Social Work: _____ (3). The organizing theme of the advanced clinical selective emphasizes application of advanced theoretical and practice principles to client systems. This advanced selective provides students with the opportunity to critically consider the themes of the school as they relate to the need for assessment, diagnostic, and process evaluations with a variety of client systems. Every student will engage in activities designed to solidify their professional identity as clinical practitioners as they enter the workforce. Topics offered may include strengths-oriented, solution-focused brief therapy; narrative therapy; ego-psychoanalytic from a strengths perspective; social work practice and families. Prerequisite: Completion of SW 810. LEC

SW 830 Social Work in Child and Family Settings (3). An in-depth examination of social work in child and family settings. Students demonstrate the capacity to integrate research, policy, direct practice, and human behavior in considering the issues central to this area of practice. Students will also be able to explain how diversity issues manifest themselves at both the policy and direct practice levels. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 832 Social Work in Health Care and Mental Health Settings (3). Content as in SW 830 focused on health care and mental health. LEC

SW 833 Social Work and Aging (3). Content as in SW 830 focused on aging. LEC

SW 834 Social Work in Schools (3). Content as in SW 830 focused on schools. LEC

SW 840 Social Program Design and Management (3). Introduction to client-centered human service management, including the variety of tasks, roles, and functions of managers. Majority of the course is devoted to design and analysis of social programs within a specific analytic framework. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 841 Advanced Policy and Programs (3). The focus is on the development of skills to stay abreast of and knowledgeable about critical federal and state policies, regulations, and funding structures and streams in students’ chosen field of practice. Students will also learn how to research the literature on best practice and effective programs. All of these skills and consequential knowledge will be used to inform program design, resource acquisition, financial management, personnel management, outcome management, and other administrative functions. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 842 Using Outcomes for Administrative and Advocacy Practice (3). Emphasis is on the use of information to improve human service program performance. Includes content for the design, implementation, and evaluation of information systems. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 843 Strengthening Staff Performance in a Diverse Workplace (3). Builds knowledge and skills in effective supervision and human resource management with emphasis on maximizing client and community well-being by increasing job satisfaction, enhancing staff morale, and creating and maintaining workplaces that reflect, contribute to, and celebrate diversity in the larger community. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 844 Facilitating Organizational and Community Change (3). Focus on the development and practice of strategies to influence agencies and programs to be client centered; identify client centered program enhancements, plan change efforts, and practice interpersonal strategies to implement changes. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 845 Seminar in Client-centered Leadership and Management (3). The purpose is to bring together knowledge and practical experiences of students in the final stage of their preparation of practice as client-centered administrators and supervisors. The class is devoted to the study of leadership, innovation, and change and the development of skills in these areas. Some emphasis will be devoted to making structural changes to enhance the well-being of clients. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 846 Advanced Community and Advocacy Practice (3). This course is designed to build on the content of the foundation course on community and organizational practice by further developing the theories, methods, and skills of community and advocacy practice. The course will help students know and further develop the analytical and empirical skills needed to effectively manage and advocate with and on behalf of different human service communities. Throughout the course, skill-based exercises are presented to aid in understanding theoretical concepts. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 847 Grantwriting and Fundraising (3). This course is designed to acquaint students with the knowledge and skills necessary for human service programs to acquire resources through grantwriting and fundraising. Focus is on prospect research for public and private funding, the preparation of a fundable grant proposal, and other fundraising techniques used by agencies to support their client-centered mission. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 848 Fundamentals of Client-centered Management (3). Services to clients can often be most effectively provided by interventions at the organizational and community levels. Using client strengths and needs as the focus, students learn basic theories and skills necessary to provide such interventions. Topics covered include client-centered management; assessing outcomes, managing resources; program design and program analysis. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC

SW 849 Mastering the Use of Financial Records for Social Work Practices (3). Focus on the use of resources needed to operate a client centered program. Includes budgeting techniques and their application; use of budgets for decision making, and problems of reallocation. Prerequisite: Completion of all foundation requirements. LEC
